

SAVED FROM THE SEA

Crew of Schooner Islesboro
Faced Death 18 Hours

HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE

Were Huddled on Roof of After House and Washed by Every Wave —
Finally Rescued by Steamer.

New York, Nov. 17.—Eight shipwrecked sailors, the captain and crew of the three-masted schooner Islesboro, who were rescued from their storm-battered, water-logged craft, after a terrible experience in the hurricane, early this week, were brought here today on the British steamer Atholl. The rescue was made in dangerous seas off Cape Henry, north of Hatteras, while the waves were breaking over the helpless craft fore and aft.

Huddled on the narrow roof of the after house, where they had been driven as the schooner settled until her decks were awash and swept by every wave, the crew of the Islesboro had nearly abandoned hope when the steamer sent a boat to their assistance.

Capt. Trim of the Islesboro said he sailed from Savannah, Ga., Nov. 9, for New Bedford, Mass., with a cargo of yellow pine. Last Sunday the wind increased to hurricane proportions. Sail was shortened, but one by one the pieces of canvas were ripped away.

From 1 o'clock in the afternoon until midnight the Islesboro ran, without sail, before the gale. From midnight the hold filled rapidly and within an hour the decks were awash.

Capt. Trim and his crew then sought safety on the deck of the after house. For 18 hours the men clung to their precarious positions, while the Islesboro pitched and tossed in the sea, and was swept from end to end by every wave. Capt. Trim believes the Islesboro is a total wreck.

The Islesboro was built at Alexandria, Va., in 1882, and hailed from New York. She was of 626 tons net, 154 feet long, 35.5 feet beam and 19.5 feet deep.

DENIES KAISER IS ILL.

Foreign Office Declares That Throat Trouble Has Not Returned.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—The Foreign Office authorizes the Associated Press to say that there is absolutely no truth in yesterday's rumor that Emperor William's throat trouble had returned.

Persons who were present at Chancellor von Bülow's dinner Saturday night say the emperor took a most animated part in the conversation. No one noticed a trace of hoarseness or any other indication that his voice was affected.

Furthermore, the Foreign Office assures the Associated Press that if the trouble occurs, the news will immediately be given to the public officially.

ITALY WILL APPROVE TREATY.

Favors Arbitration Agreement With the United States.

Rome, Nov. 17.—The Foreign Office has informed Ambassador Meyer that Italy is quite favorable to the conclusion of an arbitration treaty with the United States, and will empower Ambassador Mayor des Planches to sign it in Washington.

Although favorable in principle to the revocation of the Hague conference, Italy has not yet answered the proposal of the United States officially, owing to the fact that an exchange of views on the subject is in progress between the powers forming the triple alliance.

Swiss Adopt Arbitration.

Berne, Switzerland, Nov. 17.—Arbitration treaties will shortly be concluded between Switzerland and the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Austria-Hungary, Germany, and Sweden and Norway.

DARTMOUTH READY.

Members of the Team Arrived in Boston Yesterday.

Boston, Nov. 17.—Deprived of practice in Hanover on account of the heavy fall of snow which covers their home gridiron, Dartmouth's 'Varsity' squad, twenty-two strong, arrived at the Copley Square Hotel yesterday to wind up their practice for Saturday's game against Brown, which is to be played at the Huntington avenue baseball park.

Dartmouth is in good condition and while confident of victory, there is not a single Dartmouth player who feels that Brown will be defeated easily.

Coch Robinson of Brown visited the new gridiron today and was pleased with the way the field is laid out and with the seating arrangements at the park.

HARVARD SEEKS LUCK.

Crimson Players Fear the Worst in Game With Yale.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 17.—Fearing the worst, yet hoping for a change of luck, the Harvard 'Varsity' squad left Boston this morning, determined to get a good rest in preparation for the battle with the Elis on Saturday.

Never before in the history of Harvard has the squad started for the scene of battle in a more disorganized state. Injuries, hard luck, and other detriments have put the coaches in a sad plight, and they do not know just what to do.

CLEVER GANG IN TOILS.

Thleged "Green Goods" Men Long Defied the Officers.

New York, Nov. 17.—Five men, all charged with being "green goods" swindlers, were arrested last night in Brooklyn. The men are George Harley, a salesman of New York, and Charles Wilson, alias "Daniel Creed," a truckman; Albert Sloane, alias "George Primrose," alias "Charles Tiffany," a clerk; Henry Rogers, a salesman, and Elmer Brown, alias "Albert Copper," a commission merchant, all of Brooklyn.

Since last summer Inspector Boyle says the postoffice department has been receiving complaints from victims, which seemed to locate the home of the operators in Greater New York. All of the plans which in the past have proved successful in running down such prey were fruitless in this case, as the leads invariably ended at a telephone station in Rockaway, Jamaica or Flushing, at which the telegram which the intended victim would send to the swindlers, saying that he was on the way to get the "goods," as directed by the letter of instructions, would be received by the telephone operator and the contents privately communicated to the swindlers, who had given fictitious addresses.

The secret service men, after much difficulty, obtained a confession from a telephone operator and the arrests quickly followed.

Patterson Jury Carefully Selected.

New York, Nov. 17.—With four of the twelve men who are to decide her fate already selected, the trial of Nan Patterson, the former show girl charged with the murder of Caesar Young, the wealthy horseman, was continued in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court today. Great care has been used in the examination of talesmen and the exhaustive questioning and almost indiscriminate challenging indicated that another full court day or even more might be consumed in filling the jury box, that the panel of one hundred talesmen might be exhausted before the task was finished.

Joseph Harrington of New York
City Saved from Pneumonia
by Father John's Medicine.

Some time ago, I was attacked with a severe cold and cough, which nothing seemed to relieve. It grew steadily worse until I was told that my trouble was likely to develop into pneumonia. A neighbor who had used Father John's Medicine with very satisfactory results brought me part of a bottle and advised me to try it. I did so and within a short time I could see that it was helping me. I continued to use it until I was entirely cured. My wife has used the medicine for throat and lung troubles with excellent results, and so have many of our friends to whom we have recommended it. TALK OF A NEW TARIFF

A Special Commission May Be Appointed

WHOLLY OF REPUBLICANS

Bill to Be a Strict Party Measure —
Calling of Extra Session
Thus Might Be Avoided.

Washington, Nov. 17.—One of the proposals which find some favor among Republicans here for dealing with the tariff and revenue questions is to appoint a special commission from the Republicans of the two houses of Congress to sit during the recess next spring, and formulate a new tariff bill, which would be taken up at the regular December session of 1905 and pushed through as a party measure. It is argued that this plan would avoid the extra session, with the alleged unsettlement of business which a public debate on the tariff might occasion, and that the Republican majorities in both houses are so large that any measure which had the approval of such a group of leaders would not be endangered by minor objections such as might be the case when either house of Congress held a slight plurality. There would be no advantage in putting Democrats on this committee, since they could have no real part in formulating a measure which would be presented and pushed strictly as a Republican project.

BILL SEWELL'S NAME IS BEFORE THE PRESIDENT

He Is a Candidate for Collector of Customs, Aroostook, Me., and There Are Others.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—The name of Bill Sewell, President Roosevelt's old-time guide and hunting companion in the Maine backwoods, has been presented to the chief executive by the Republican chairman of Sewell's home county as candidate for collector of customs at Aroostook, Me. There are other candidates, including it is understood, the present incumbent. That official's term has not yet expired. The appointment will not be settled until the Maine senators and representatives talk it over.

BIG INAUGURAL SHOW.

President Wants It to Be the Very Grandest of All.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—The President has offered the appointment of chairman of the inaugural committee to C. C. Glover, a local financier. Mr. Glover, if he accepts, will have charge of all arrangements for Mr. Roosevelt's forthcoming inauguration. He has the matter of acceptance in abeyance.

Mr. Glover represents big moneyed interests in the South and East. He is president of the Riggs National Bank of Washington. By his selection Mr. Roosevelt gives evidence that his inauguration ceremonies are to be held on a large scale. It is said the President desires that his inauguration be the most elaborate in the history of the country. Every possible organization which can contribute to the gayety of the occasion will be invited to be present.

WOOLEY GIVES THE LIE.

Prohibition Editor Attacks the Party's National Chairman.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17.—For the degradation of Chairman Oliver W. Stewart, of the Prohibition national committee, ambition and revenge were responsible, says the New Voice, John G. Wooley's paper and organ of the party in the United States. W. E. Johnson, in a supplementary editorial makes charges against an alleged gang of four looters of the campaign treasury, which is alleged to have suffered to the extent of about $15,000.

The lie is given direct to Mr. Stewart, and he is accused of "treason to the party," of "rubber heel" work, of "imposition upon the confidence" of the national treasurer and of strategy. All these charges are made by Editor Wooley.

GENERAL WALLACE FAILING.

Reports That He Is Near Death Are Exaggerated, However.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 17.—The reports that Gen. Lew Wallace is near death are considerably exaggerated. He is in failing health, and has been gradually losing strength for the last two years, but largely through his indomitable spirit he continues his activities.

He drives out every day, and a week ago was an enthusiastic "rooter" at the Wabash (Ind.) foot ball game. He still superintends the work of several departments on his farm, but his literary labors are practically over. It is doubtful if he ever finishes his autobiography, which is only half done. He is planning to spend the winter in Porto Rico.
